

AGREE ON PLAN TO ACCEPT PACT

Mild Reservationists Say Many Democrats Favor Proposal.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—The republican and democratic senators working for a peace treaty compromise centered their attention today on a plan said to have been accepted by the mild reservation republicans and by a number of democrats for ratification with three modifications in the 14-reservation treaty approved by the senate majority at the last session.

The three changes, which some senators believe would make the treaty acceptable to reservationists, are: (1) That the reservationists must be satisfied in the eyes of the public, with article 10 and with the other provisions of the treaty; (2) That the reservationists must be satisfied in the eyes of the public, with the other provisions of the treaty; (3) That the reservationists must be satisfied in the eyes of the public, with the other provisions of the treaty.

Under the new compromise suggested, the senate reservationists would be regarded as accepted by the other parties to the treaty, and less specific objection would be made within a limited time. The wording of the article 10 reservation would be changed so as to eliminate the language which President Wilson said he would regard as a rejection of the treaty and to substitute an affirmative declaration that the article's obligations are accepted with the understanding that a future congress shall be at liberty to decide questions of peace and war.

Although compromise talk on this and other modification plans continues among the senators remaining here, there are no many signs that any concrete action is expected until the senate reassembles next Monday.
